

TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY DRIVER LICENSE DIVISION

Learner License Application Checklist

When applying for the student's learner license, the following items must be taken to the driver license office:

- A high school diploma, its equivalent (GED), or Verification of School Enrollment and Attendance \(VOE\). The VOE must be obtained from the school and be signed by the school administrator or his/her designee
- Driver Education Certificate (DE-964) from course providers
- The required fee for the learner license
- If the student owns a car, proof of liability insurance and proof of Texas registration
- If the student was previously licensed (including a learner license) in another state, the out-of-state license must be surrendered, or a Texas Department of Public Safety affidavit must be executed certifying the out of state license has been lost, stolen, or is expired
- Original acceptable documentation to verify the social security number of the student (see Acceptable Identification Requirements <http://www.dps.texas.gov/DriverLicense/ssn.htm> . Individuals who have not applied for, been issued, or do not have a social security number may complete a Social Security Affidavit
- Original acceptable identification documents for the student (see Acceptable Identification Requirements <http://www.dps.texas.gov/DriverLicense/identificationrequirements.htm>)
- Classroom Instruction - Driver Education Affidavit (DL-90A), included in Parent Taught packet, from each instructor

Applicants must present additional documentation if the applicant is:

- a. A U.S. citizen, he/she must present a document indicating citizenship such as a birth certificate issued by the appropriate Bureau of Vital Statistics or equivalent agency of a U.S. state, U.S. territory, or the District of Columbia; U.S. Passport; a Certificate of U.S. Citizenship; or a Certificate of U.S. Naturalization
