Strength & Honor In Everyday Lawful Decisions is a course developed by the military and transformed into a law enforcement specific program centered on resiliency. We will discuss critical incidents and issues facing officers on and off duty, and lay the foundation to bounce back from the issues that may hinder an officers ability move on from them.

Audited by the FBI National Academy and the US Military; The Education, Training & Research Division invites all levels of law enforcement to experience this cutting edge course in resiliency for optimal performance both on and off duty.
