Who IS eligible to apply for a Texas Election Identification Certificate?

The department shall issue an election identification certificate upon request to persons who do not have one of the forms of acceptable photo identification listed above, and are:

- A registered voter in Texas and present a valid voter registration certificate, or are eligible to vote and submit a voter registration application to the Department.
- A United States citizen.
- A resident of Texas.
- At least 17 years and 10 months of age.

Who is NOT eligible to apply for a Texas Election Identification Certificate?

Any persons issued one of the following documents are not eligible for an election identification certificate:

- Texas driver license (includes occupational license with photograph) – unexpired, or expired less than 4 years.
- Texas identification card – unexpired, or expired less than 4 years.
- Texas license to carry / concealed handgun license – unexpired, or expired less than 4 years.
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph.
- United States passport book or card – unexpired, or expired less than 4 years.
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph.
- Persons who are not United States citizens (i.e. permanent residents, asylees, refugees or temporary visitors).

Section 521A of the Texas Transportation Code states that:

- An election identification certificate may not be used or accepted as a personal identification certificate.
- The department may not collect a fee for an election identification certificate or a duplicate election identification certificate issued under this section.
- The department may require each applicant for an original or renewal election identification certificate to furnish to the department proof of identification and US citizenship.
- The department may cancel and require surrender of an election identification certificate after determining that the holder was not entitled to, or gave incomplete information in the application for, the election identification certificate.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER COLLECTION DISCLOSURE

Disclosure of your social security account number is mandatory for identification card and driver license applicants, but voluntary for election identification certificate applicants. This information is solicited pursuant to 42 U.S. C. section 405(c)(2)(C)(i), 42 U.S.C. section 666(a)(13)(A), 6 C.F.R. section 37.11(e), 49 C.F.R. section 383.153, Texas Family Code section 231.302(c)(1), and Texas Transportation Code sections 521.142 and 522.021. The Department will use social security number information for identification purposes and will only release the number as statutorily authorized by Texas Transportation Code section 521.044.
