JUVENILE JUSTICE INFORMATION SYSTEM

During the 74th Regular Session in 1995, the Texas Legislature made extensive changes in the Juvenile Justice System. These changes substantially changed Chapter 58 of the Family Code that outlines and defines the Juvenile Justice Information System (JJIS). The Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS), Texas Youth Commission (TYC), Texas Juvenile Probation Commission (TJPC), Criminal Justice Police Council (CJPC), and juvenile courts created a comprehensive tracking system that includes relevant data for agencies responsible for the arrest, prosecution, adjudication and correction of juvenile offenders. This system also provides usable data to support analyses by juvenile justice policy makers and planners.

This data is maintained in a statewide Computerized Criminal History (CCH) system regulated by the Crime Records Division of DPS.
