

It's time to renew...

Skip the Trip

Renew online!*

Eligible residents may renew their driver license or identification card online at the DPS Driver License Division or Texas.gov renewal web page:

www.texas.gov/DLrenewal

Step 1 - You may be eligible* to renew online if:

- ▶ Your current license is still valid
- ▶ Your license expires in less than one year and has not been expired for over two years
- ▶ Your last renewal was in person at a Texas driver license office
- ▶ You have been verified as a US citizen
- ▶ Your Social Security Number (SSN) is on file with the Driver License Division
- ▶ You do not have a Class A or Class B driver license or a commercial driver license (CDL)
- ▶ You don't currently have, or have not been diagnosed with, or treated for any medical condition that may affect your ability to safely operate a motor vehicle
- ▶ You do not have any unpaid traffic tickets or outstanding warrants
- ▶ You are at least 18 years of age and your driver license is not a provisional or learner license

Step 2 - To renew online, have the following available:

- A. Your current driver license or identification card
- B. A major credit card (MasterCard, Visa, Discover, or American Express)
- C. The last four digits of your SSN

Texas Department of Public Safety
DRIVER LICENSE DIVISION
Faster, easier, friendlier service

texas.gov
Take it online, Texas.

* If you meet eligibility requirements

DL-61 (06/16)

Phishing Alert!

Beware of look-alike websites that are not the official Texas Department of Public Safety Driver License Division website (www.dps.texas.gov/DriverLicense) or the official State of Texas website (Texas.gov)!

To prevent fraudulent use of your personal information and avoid paying unnecessary fees, only renew your driver license or identification card online at the official government agency website:

www.texas.gov/driver

When you type our website address online, enter it in the address bar at the top of your browser (Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome, Safari, Opera, etc.) instead of your search engine bar (Google, Bing, Yahoo, Ask, AOL, etc.).

If you enter it in your search engine bar, the first few websites listed—usually with a highlighted background—are advertisements by private organizations that may be fraudulent.

This is a search engine example. ↓

The screenshot shows a Google search for "renew texas drivers license". The search bar contains the text "renew texas drivers license" and a search icon. Below the search bar, there are tabs for "All", "News", "Maps", "Shopping", "Books", "More", and "Search tools". The search results show "About 294,000 results (0.49 seconds)". The first result is "UNOFFICIAL → Drivers License Renewal - Texas DMV License Renewal Info" with a URL "dmv.texaservices.org/Renewal". Below this result are links for "Renew Your TX Driver License Today!", "Renew Drivers License", "License Address Change", "Replace Drivers License", and "Car Registration Renewal". The second result is "OFFICIAL → TxDPS - Renew Your Driver License or ID Card - Texas Department of ..." with a URL "https://www.txdps.state.tx.us/DriverLicense/renewal...". Below this result is a description: "The fastest way to renew or change the address on your driver license or ID. Call 1-866-DL RENEW (1-866-357-3639) to renew by phone. The eligibility requirements for phone renewal are the same as for online renewal. Individuals who received an invitation to renew by mail can renew by mail, online or by phone."

This is what the official renewal and change-of-address web page looks like. ↓

The screenshot shows the official website of the Texas Department of Public Safety Driver License Division. The page title is "Driver License Renewal and Change of Address". The page includes a "Welcome" section with a message: "Welcome to the Texas Driver License Renewal and Change of Address system." There are "Services" listed: "Renew your driver license and/or identification (ID) card" and "Change the address on your driver license and/or ID card". There is a "What You Need" section with a printer icon and a message: "A printer to print your temporary driver license or ID, which is valid for 45 days. If you do not have a printer, you can renew by phone: 1-866-DL-RENEW (1-866-357-3639)". There are "Fees" listed: "Renewal of driver license (with or without changing address): $25", "Renewal of ID (with or without changing address): $16", "Renewal of driver license with motorcycle (with or without changing address): $33", and "Change of address only for driver license or ID: $11". There is an "Information" section with "Steps to Complete" (1. Welcome, 2. Login, 3. Select Services, 4. Enter Address, 5. Select Options, 6. Review Order, 7. Submit Payment, 8. Receipt) and "Frequently Asked Questions" (Eligibility, Where's My License or ID?, En Español). The page footer states: "This online service is provided by Texas.gov, the official website of Texas. The price of this service includes funds that support the ongoing operations and enhancements of Texas.gov, which is provided by a third party in partnership with the State."

Other Online Services

www.dps.texas.gov/DriverLicense

- ✓ Change of address
- ✓ Order a driver record
- ✓ Pay reinstatement fees
- ✓ Mobile scheduling & queuing
- ✓ Check driver eligibility
- ✓ Schedule a drive test
- ✓ Request a hearing
- ✓ Pay DRP† surcharges

† Driver Responsibility Program: <http://www.dps.texas.gov/DriverLicense/drps.htm>

Driver License Office Hours

Office schedules differ in each area based on population and customer demand. Please visit us online for specific driver license office hours and days of operation before you go. For faster service times, Wednesday and Thursday are typically our non-peak days.