This certificate does not guarantee any specific rights relating to your carrying of a handgun. Any such rights are conditioned on several factors, including the status of your license to carry, the status of your employment as a tactical medical professional, and whether you are employed to provide direct support to a tactical unit of the agency responding to a high-risk incident.

I verify that the information provided is true and correct. I also understand this is an official government record and any missing information and/or false statement made on this document may result in criminal prosecution.
